

Year 12 & 13 Level Geography

Recommended reading

	Recommended reading	Stretch and challenge
GCSE to A Level transition	Rawlings-Smith E. et al, (2016), Top Spec Geography: Changing Places . Book	Castree, N. (2003) Place: connections and boundaries in an interdependent world , in Holloway. Jackson, P. 2006 Thinking Geographically , Geography 91(2), 109-204
Year 12	Classical Novels (Year 12) Manning, A. (2004) Utopia - Black Swan George Orwell [2001]: The Road to Wigan Pier - Penguin Manning, A. (2004) Utopia - Black Swan	Koser, K. (2016) International Migration: A very short introduction . Oxford, OUP. Anderson, J. (2009) Understanding Cultural Geography: Places and traces . London: Routledge
Year 13	Global Systems and Global Governance (Year 12 and 13) Bernstein, W. (2009) A Splendid Exchange: How Trade Shaped the World - Atlantic Books. Ruggie, J. (2009) State of the World: How Globalization is Changing Our Lives -Atlantic Book Contemporary Urban Environments (Year 13) Florida, R. (2017) The new urban crisis: gentrification, housing bubbles, and how we can resist them . New York: Oneworld Changing the World	Geog. M. Kelly, P. and Young, J. (2013) Economic Geography: A contemporary introduction, 3rd Edition . Oxford, Wiley. Flint, C. (ed.) (2004) The world and ideas of the world . New York, OUP.
A level to undergraduate transition	Crang, P., Goodwin, M. & Cloke, P. (2014) Introducing human geographies (Third ed.) - Geopolitics: A very short introduction, 3rd Edition . Oxford, OUP.	